“Taste and see that the Lord is good” Psalm 34:8

Returning to the Atrium is an exciting time for both the children and the catechists! We begin with a question: In this space, what has helped you to ‘taste and see that the Lord is good’? We invite the children to bring this item to the prayer table and share. In this picture we see the wine cruet, the oils of Baptism, the paten with paper host, the Ciborium from the Tabernacle, and the miniature paten and chalice with water jug from the Cenacle work—the upper room where the Last Supper took place and Jesus gave us those new words “This is my body, This is my blood.”

BAPTISM

Call/text 715.416.1710 email re.saintphilip@gmail.com

Children are invited to recall the moment of their Baptism and recognize their role in the Plan of God. What does it mean to carry Jesus’ risen light and how are we expected to act as a child of the light? Here a child is restoring their work after lighting the baptismal candle, using the font, and recalling her own baptismal promises.

“Through our Baptism, Jesus shares His risen light with us. The Baptismal signs—waters of the font, paschal candle which lights our baptismal candle, the white garment, the holy oils—help us to better understand the abundance of gifts received. Our Baptism is the particular moment when the Good Shepherd calls us by name to enter his special sheepfold, the Church!” - Life In The Vine

Thank you Father Joseph for offering the server training!

Middle School is using Into the Deep Level 3 and encountering God in Lectio Divina. So far the lessons have including working with clay, painting/sketching, and observing the stars—one of the first of creation. Did God create because He needed these things? Or did he always have us in his plan from the beginning?

Thank you to our volunteers, Noah and Dan, for bringing energy and a love for Jesus to these young people!
